Experience Litigation and arbitration practice consisting of contract disputes, commercial and business disputes, real property disputes, and small percentage of personal injury disputes. Advocates for small to large business owners, banks, insurance companies, contractors, subcontractors, homeowners, commercial property owners, individuals. Significant experience representing parties in breach of contract disputes. Representation of small to medium-sized business owners in wide range of business dealings from contract negotiation to contract disputes. Appellate court practice, including oral argument.

Handled lawsuits, mediations, and arbitrations ranging from small claims to multi-million dollar disputes. Specific matters include: successful representation at trial of company dealing with technology advances and related breach of contract; defended persons against U.S. Department of Justice from claims of fraudulent conveyance; representing parties in payment disputes; collections matters; successful representation at trial of site contractor against claims for construction defects from owner and utility company; representation of commercial property owner in state claims commission and trial against state; representation of individuals and banks to quiet title; representation of general contractor in disputes with architect, owner, and subcontractors.

Intern experience with all three branches of state government: Tennessee Supreme Court, Tennessee General Assembly, and State Board of Equalization.

Mediator Experience	Mediator fully resolving matters ranging from construction disputes, fraud claims, contract claims, and partnership/business dissolutions. Rule 31 Listed General Civil Mediator since 2017
Representative Issues Handled as a Mediator	Mediation issues involving construction defect and contract issues, variety of contract disputes, employment and educator issues with school board, sensitive fraud and contract claims mixed with criminal charges, resolution of partnership and business dissolution and familial business-related disputes.
Mediator Style & Process Preferences	Given the risk and cost of litigation, including the non-economic toil of disputes, I look for every avenue to resolve disputes. Early dispute resolution is important so long as the parties understand their claims, damages, and defenses. Creativity is key to finding resolution to complex issues and in order to maximize the benefit of mediation to all parties.
