Representative Issues Handled as a Mediator

Mediation experience in a wide array of industries and subject matters, including:

General and commercial contract disputes; commercial real property leases; technology disputes; software development; joint development agreement; open book accounting; intellectual property disputes; trade secret misappropriations; loan guarantees; fee disputes; professional malpractice; partnership disputes; fraud/misrepresentations; conversion; employment agreements; EDD employee classification; wage and hour claims; reasonable accommodations; Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act (Lemon Law) claims; Consumers Legal Remedies Act claims; personal injuries; airplane turbulence and in-flight injury claims; TBI (traumatic brain injuries); restaurant leases; landlord-tenant disputes; and unlawful detainer actions.

Mediator Style & Process Preferences

Evaluative/Facilitative.

In mediation, I promote and utilize a pre-mediation protocol of separate conferences with representatives of all parties, exchange of key information and mediation statements, and establishing agreed-upon agenda for the mediation session. I review all submitted materials and engage in conversation with the parties' representatives in advance to understand the interests and goals of each party. I respect party autonomy in mediation and do my best to ensure that each party's voice is not only heard but also reflected in the outcome.

Technology Proficiency

Substantial experience in online dispute resolution using Zoom and Team platforms.

Familiar with ESI (electronically stored information) issues.

Worked on an Artificial Intelligent (AI) project as an engineer.
